A few continued despite the rain, but the conditions were not satisfactory, though the players were persistent. In the evening only a few second division games were played, and no first division contests.

At 9.30 o'clock the formal opening took place with Mayor C. F. Thayer present to make the initial drive. He tried for the first arch, this being his second season in the capacity of opener, but missed, and he then left the court to the experts. He had previously welcomed them to the city staling that it was a privilege again to do so. He said he was always pleased to see the experts gather here, and this was also the feeling of the citizens of Norwich, in behalf of whom he extended the welcome. Clark Got Three Games. In the first division there were mine games played Tuesday, and one-third of them was played and won by exchampion F. Edward Clark of Springfield. He is showing great form this year and has certainly made an excellent start which will help as the week gets older. His first victory was from King, in which he played a characteristic game, taking every chance possible, which has brought victory for him in more games than this. King started Son had charge of the arrangements.

AUTO WAS AFIRE.

Street Sweepers Put It Out Early Tuesday Morning.

The night gang of the city's street sweepers on Franklin square blossomed out into an effective fire brigade on Monday night, shortly after midnight, when they put out the fire in an automobile which was standing in the square. When the machine was cranked for starting it blazed up fiercely, attracting the attention of two of the sweepers who deluged it with dirt It has been decided that H. T. Webb will play C. C. King for the first Van Wickle medal, and these games will take place during the evenings of this week, by a vote of the last annual meeting. Mr. Webb challenged the holder a year ago and it has been decided that he will play for it, though others, including Champion Bosworth, desired an opportunity to play for it sweepers who deluged it with dirt from the piles of sweepings around the square. They had a few minutes of lively work before the fire was extin-guished, allowing the automobile to proceed on its way after the two men, who were driving it had thanked the desired an opportunity to play for it again, the champion having held it two agail, the champion having field it two years or more.

For the second Van Wickle medal L. E. Whitaker, the holder, has been challedged by Woodruff Sulfivan of this city and C. B. Crowell of Brattleboro. Inasmuch as the former played for it last year, it has been decided that Crowell will play the holder for it this who were driving it, had thanked the sweepers for their prompt assistance.

LOCAL MEMBERS OF 13TH. Forty-first Annual Reunion Will Be Held at Savin Rock Thursday. Local members of the Connecticut 13th C. V., which includes Joseph T. Gardner of Montville, have received notice of the 14th annual reunion of their regiment, which is to be held August 17 at Savin Rock, New Haven. This is also the 50th anniversary of the formation of the regiment, which enlisted at first for three years and then re-enlisted for the balance of the war. There were a few games played in the evening, though there were no spectators because of the rain. Whita-ker beat Miner in easy fashion, while E. G. Adams of Kingston took his first gama from Prentice.

There was an interesting game between W. L. Robinson and Mrs. Kephart which was won by the former after quite a battle. He secured a rover and then the Philadelphia player began to make trouble, but this was
